Dear Mr Thumboo Chetty,

I am enclosing two letters from Chamkhani which my mother and I received today. Please read them and submit them to His Highness. I cannot bear the tone of the letters. I was very hurt when I received mine and so was my mother. Tell me what I should write in reply. A wire was received yesterday and in it there was this statement,

My dear Appaji,

I should like you not to acquire me in troubling you in Hassan especially when I know you have gone there for a holiday. But since the matter is one of such great importance as to really trouble I take this opportunity of writing to you to obtain permission. It was I have no objection

'Two Sardars arriving soon. Don't worry'. In these letters I can see... that the old lady, Rama-Saheba, means to come here herself. So far as I am concerned I am not going to yield come what may. If it goes to an extreme pitch, even then I will not yield.'

It was broken my heart that the marriage that would fall so shamefully. I still hope in the highest and so disastrously. I also take this opportunity to thank You for your good wishes on my birthday.

Yours sincerely,
